Terms of sale Infoline +39 0461 829 990

At the time of purchase, the customer must exhibit a valid ID document to obtain the reduction for seniors, juniors and children (identity card, tax code, health card, family status, etc.). No self-certifications are allowed.

- The lift pass is a personal document and cannot be exchanged, transferred, replaced, nor can the duration and typology be modified. 4-day or longer passes require a photograph (free of charge).
- Any misuse of the lift pass, in particular its transfer to third parties, will result in its immediate withdrawal and cancellation without prejudice to the right to undertake a penal and civil action against the transgressors.
- When receiving the lift pass, the client must check that it meets his/her requests. It is not possible to change or prolong passes already issued or used.
- With the "holiday packages" offered by hotels and residences it is not possible to change the kind of ticket provided, not even before it is issued.
- All passes are valid only until the end of the winter season. All weeks between the high and low season will be considered as "high season" if they fall into the high season for an equal or greater number of days.
- The lift passes are issued in the form of key cards (with the sole exception of single fares) upon payment of € 5.00 deposit that will be given back when returning the intact and functioning pass to the ticket offices or certain local shops. On the Monte Bondone key cards it is possible to "load" the lift passes for all areas belonging to the Skirama carousel. The lift pass must be worn on the left side of the jacket, away from mobile phones or other devices with radio frequency.
- If an invoice is required, it must be requested before the passes are issued. A non-fiscal receipt can be issued upon request. The listed prices include 10% VAT.
- Lift passes must be paid for in cash or with major credit cards at the time of issue. Bank transfers are also accepted with no charges for the beneficiary. Our administrative office must receive the bank transfer before issuing the lift passes. Cheques are not accepted. Prices are expressed in euros.

• Duplicates: euro 30.00 will be charged as an expense refund for the duplicate of a SuperSkirama season pass.

Refunds

• Lift passes cannot be refunded or replaced due to bad weather, loss, theft, withdrawal for misuse, closure of lifts (even partial due to bad weather conditions), closure of ski runs (even partial for lack of snow, competitions, training sessions), illness and injuries.

SAFE SKIING

• For everybody's safety, all clients are requested to follow the signs on the ski runs and the behavioural rules, and to ski carefully and according to their abilities.

Accidents and assistance on the runs

- In case of accident, all skiers must offer assistance.
- They must inform the nearest departure/arrival station of the location and kind of accident.

For juniors under 14 years, the helmet is mandatory from January 1st 2005.

As per Italian law no. 363 art. 8 dd. 24.12.03 on the rules governing the safety for downhill and cross-country skiing.
